CAP. 164.

and shall be read and construed as one with the Passports Act, which, as amended, is hereinafter referred to as the principal Act.

Insertion of new section 2A
in principal Act.

2. The principal Act is amended by inserting next after section 2 the following as section 2A –

“Minister
may delegate specified functions.

2A.(1) The Minister may, by Order published in the Gazette, delegate to any Minister of State appointed to assist him, the exercise or performance of all or any of the powers or functions conferred upon the Minister under the provisions of this Act specified in subsection (4).

(2) A delegation under subsection (1) is revocable by the Minister and the delegation of the exercise of a power or the performance of a function shall not preclude its exercise or performance by the Minister.

(3) The provisions of this Act shall apply in relation to a power or a function delegated under this section as they would apply where the power or function is exercised or performed by the Minister.

(4) The provisions specified are those of section 2.

(5) The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding the provisions of section 59 of the Interpretation Act (power to delegate authority).”
